Lightfoot--Leitch.

The marriage of Miss Sallie Johnnie Lightfoot, of Hawesville, to Mr. John C. Leitch, of Pittsburgh, Pa., was a social event of last night in which Cloverport felt much interest, the bride having been a frequent and always popular visitor here. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock in the pretty little Presbyterian church, adorned for the occasion with autumn foliage and many potted plants, Rev. Dr. Smith, of Louisville, being the officiating clergyman. The bridal party entered to the "classic chorus from "Lohengrin" rendered by a choir under the direction of Mrs. Alfred Hennen. The ushers, Messrs. Ewing Lightfoot, of Henderson, and Thomas James de la Hunt, of Cannelton, headed the procession, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Julia Beauchamp Hinkle, walking alone; lastly coming the bride on the arm of her father, Dr. John Foster Lightfoot. Mr. Leitch, with his best man, Dr. Charles Ross Lightfoot, of Paducah, entered from the lecture-room, and the impressive Episcopal ring ceremony was used. Whitesatin chiffon, made empire style with long court train, with elaborate insets of heavy antique lace was the brides toilette, completed by a long tulle veil and a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Hinkle was becomingly attired in white pompadour net, made princess style over light blue taffeta, and carried American Beauties. Relatives and intimate friends were entertained at the bride's home after the service, the house being artistically decorated and the bridal table, at which twelve were seated, especially handsome.

A profusion of rare gifts evinced the popularity of both parties and were chosen with marked taste.

Mr. and Mrs. Leitch took the 11:26 train for St. Louis where they are spending to-day. Friday night a large reception will be given in their honor by the groom's sister, Miss Leitch, in Allegheny, where the family connection is extensive and prominent in society.

Mrs. Lewis celebrated her eighty-first birthday on last Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kate Bennett, near Basin Springs. She received a number of friends and relatives informally and was the recipient of numerous messages of congratulations from friends from a distance.

What's the matter with Ben Johnson? He's alright, all right," so say the B. Y. P. U's, of the Irvington Baptist church. On a recent trip to our town this most benevolent gentleman made a donation of thirty dollars to the church improvement fund, so of course they say Ben Johnson's all right and three cheers for him.
